ABOLISH THREE MAIN ADMINISTRATIONS IN BOSNIA-HERZEGOVINA

Sarajevo, 18 December -- The presidium of the People's Skupstina of Bosnia-Herzegovina recently issued a decree abolishing the main administrations for supply, tourism and hotels, and government purchases. Functions of the abolished administrations are to be assumed by the republic Council for Commerce.

The directors who are relieved of their duties are Dusan Savic of the Main Administration for Commerce and Supply; Ljuba Babic of the Main Administration for Tourism and Hotels; and Predrag Kolakovic of the Main Administration for Government Purchases.

The presidium has also issued a decree concerning the composition of the Council for Commerce. In addition to president Rudi Kolaka, the council is to be composed of Ilija Materic, alternate president of the Council for Industry; Jago Uskokovic, Major General of the Yugoslav Army; Asim Mujkic, secretary of the republic Committee of Trade Unions of Bosnia-Herzegovina; Vaso Gajic, president of the Main Council of Farm-Work Cooperatives; Dimitrije Bajalica, director of the Main Directorate of Agricultural Cooperatives; Abdurahman Tupara, director of the Main Directorate of State Farms; Dusan Savic, assistant to the president of the Council for Commerce; Ljubo Babic, chief of the Administration for Tourism and Hotels; Predrag Kolakovic, chief of the Administration for Export and Import in the Council for Commerce, and the commissioners for commerce and supply of the executive councils of the Sarajevo, Banjaluka, Tuzla, Mostar, and Zenica people's councils.
